

Lesson 9 – 24th April, 2026

Homework: Past simple and present perfect.

- 5 sentences with the past simple

[I went out for an aperitivo yesterday at the new bar at Teatro Verdi]

- 5 sentences with the present perfect

[I have worked hard today]

Notes from our lesson

Fields

Grapevines

Vineyards

Grape

I go out in the evening

I leave home in the morning

I wear trousers

Wear

I put on my trousers

To get dressed

What are you wearing?

I am wearing trousers.

It is a rebel

Daughter

Once a week

We have become parents

To become

I became a teacher – Diventai – Past simple

I have become a parent - sono diventata - Present Perfect

Passato prossimo/Present Perfect

- I have seen
- I have lived
- I have been
- I have read

I don't have free time for myself

I spend all of my time taking care of my baby.

Close [z]

Close [s]

To see something close up

To close up

I saw John this morning on the train.

I saw Jane 5 minutes ago.

I have seen John today

I have just seen

[I just saw John]

I saw John today

I have become a parent

To go out for dinner

To go outside to play in the garden/to smoke a cigarette

I finish work

I start work

I finish eating at 2

I have finished my coffee

I have finished drinking my coffee

I have finished the coffee

Phrasal verbs

Get up

Stand up

Get on

Get off

[to get on – andare d'accordo] I get on well with my colleagues.

Put on

Turn on

Turn off

To drop off

I take my kids to tennis training

I dropped off my kids at tennis training.

Bag drop

To pick up

I picked up my friend from the airport.

I turned the light on.

I turned on the light.

I turned it on.

I stay at work until 4

When I don't have lunch in the office/in my office/at work

At my desk

I go home and have lunch with my family

I go for Toby's daily walk

I play on my play station

I cook dinner

To have lunch

My alarm goes off at..

The bomb went off.

Tiny

I am tidy

To tidy up
