 - Here is a B1+ writing exercise designed to practice narrative tenses, expressing opinions, and using connectors (like however, because of, although, as a result).
 - ## 📝 The Writing Challenge: An Unexpected Turn of Events
 - Write about a time you were travelling (by train, plane, or car) when something unexpected happened that completely changed your plans. Write a short story about this day.
 - In your writing, you must include:
 - * Where you were going and why.
 - * What the unexpected event was.
 - * How you felt and what you did next.
 - * A concluding thought on whether the day turned out well or badly in the end.
 - * Word count: 150–180 words.
